The Party's Over

I begin this article by saying I love life and am blessed daily! I enjoy serving My Lord Jesus and find much joy being an encourager to all whom I am around. I have a wonderful wife, of over sixty years, and a great family. Yes, life is good!

For the most part I am a positive thinking person, seeing the glass half-full, not half-empty. Following a saying I picked up years ago; "Positive thinking will not make you a Christian, but a Christian will think positive". I try to live that positive life no matter what comes my way, for God is good; always.

All of this doesn't mean I don't recognize the bad, negative things going on in the world today. I am not a Christian with my head buried in the sand. It's certainly plain that the world has strayed from God and His Word. In just the eighty plus years of my life, there has been such a decline in what is different between good and evil. Morally, psychologically, and of course, spiritually the world is very negative, in its activities and way of living.

Over thirty years ago the Lord gave me a message, The Handwriting Is On The Wall. Taken from the book of Daniel. In the fifth chapter there is the account of how God caused a hand to write a message on the wall, in King Belshazzar's palace. It was a message of doom, that the actions and life style of the King and His kingdom (people who followed these ways) was coming to an end. Death! This event took place when the King was holding a big, worldly feast (party).

In 1989, Joel Hemphill of the Gospel Singing Family group wrote and recorded a song, titled "The Party's Over". It is based on this story in Daniel, of how the party, King Belshazzar was holding came to an end.

As I think about the worldly ways of people, nations leaders and followers of satan's way, I am reminded of their song, The Party's Over. The positive part in the chorus which Joel Hemphill wrote:

"Go and tell the world the party's over
Get your house in order
For the coming of the Son
The Good News is that when the party's over for the world
Celebration for the Saints has just begun."

So, I challenge you, as you experience and view the evil in the world today, to stay positive, for Jesus is coming back. The Party's just about over. Let us, as Christians, hold fast to our faith, live the Christian life enjoying the many blessings the Lord still has for us.

When Jesus comes back, the party that emphasizes greed and celebrates the sin that is so accepted as being the right way to live, will bring chaos to those left behind. However, for we who will be "taken up with Jesus," a joyful, blessed, and special party will begin.

A LIFE WITH JESUS!

Evangelist Ron Davis

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

Easter morning was always a special Sunday when I was a child. More people gathered in the little one room church than any other Sunday over the years. Everyone "dressed up" a little more than usual. New dresses for some of the ladies, perhaps a new tie for men. I remember wearing my first suit, a hand-me-down from my cousin Don, in Pennsylvania. I really liked it.

I have many good memories of Easter Sundays, in that little country church, Mt. Zion Methodist. Jeannette and I were married there and in the early 70's I pastored the church.

The one Easter that really stands out in my mind is that of April 6, 1958. It was at the Easter Sunrise Service that I preached my first message entitled, "The Son Has Risen". It was an experience which began a life of sharing the Word of God. His presence was with me!

May the presence of the Risen Son of God be with you this Easter! Ron Davis

One of the first Sunrise Services.

The Lord's Supper

This unique structure was cut with an acetylene torch, by the late Paul E. Crozier. It is a 4 foot by 8 foot piece of 3/16" sheet of steel.

It is the background on the outdoor stage here at Gospel Hill.

Make sure you come & see it.

For many years now we've been working with our Native American Indian brothers and sisters in Christ. Working on building projects, holding services and building a relationship with many individuals and tribes. The San Carlos Apache, White Mountain Apache and Hopi Reservations which are in Arizona.

The work on the maintenance of the Miracle Church, at Canyon Day on the White Mountain Reservation, will continue soon. Late this Spring or the Summer we will be sending a work team to finish the roof on the Canyon Day Miracle Church.

We appreciate those of you who have been supporting our mission work and ministry with your financial and prayer support. Thanks for being a part of this vital outreach phases of Gospel Hill Ministry.

New roofing will be put on soon.

Ron sharing The Word.

White Shoes Story on DVD

Evangelist Ron Davis is known for preaching while wearing white shoes. Since 1975, Ron has preached thousands of messages, almost always wearing white shoes.

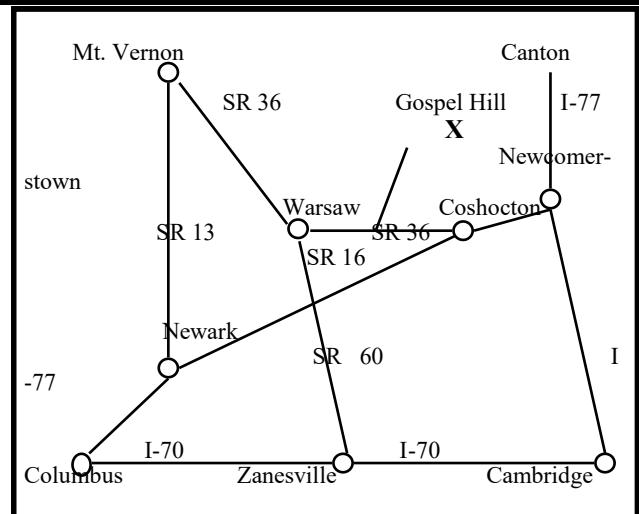

For those of you who have never heard the story of why he wears white shoes, here are some facts. No, Ron doesn't always wear white shoes; only when preaching, with the exception being funerals or weddings. The wearing of white shoes is not a superstition or for recognition.

If you would like a DVD of Ron's "White Shoes Story" write today and request it to be sent to you free of charge.
